There must be no juggling of the issues if there are to be negotiations, the French note says. Germany must accept fully the terms laid down.

ALTER RECORDS TO SAVE N.W.U.

Sensational Charge in Death of Student

ON MAYOR'S ORDERS

University President Ordered, Coroner Says

CHICAGO, May 5.—Police records dealing with class warfare at Northwestern University in 1921, when Leighton Mount, freshman, disappeared, were altered to "save the name" of the institution, Oscar Wolf, coroner, announced today.

The coroner, accompanied by other officials, visited Police Chief Leggett of Evanston and learned that he altered the records of hazing on orders from Mayor Harry Pearson. The mayor had been requested by President Walter Dill Scott of the University to make the changes, Leggett said.

Killed, Says Coroner

Wolf said the suicide theory of Mount's death was fantastic as 500 pounds of rocks weighted down the body found under a pier reaching into Lake Michigan, nineteen months after the class battle.

The records admitted changed by Police Chief Leggett, dealt with the hazing of Arthur Persinger by Mount's class mates. Persinger was tied head downward to the pier and was discovered nearly unconscious by a fishing tug. A few hours later Mount disappeared.

Hazing Seen by Officers

Leggett admitted that after the finding of Persinger he had ordered a police captain stationed all night at the pier under which Mount's body was later found, to prevent more students being thrown into the lake unless they were unbound. Three had been hurled into the lake, tied hand and foot, before the police captain was stationed at the pier.

The officer reported that at least 30 students were dropped off the pier while he was at the post of duty, his only precaution being to see that the victims were not tied.

J. Allen Mills, president of the freshman class in 1921, is the only student mentioned in connection with the fighting still unquestioned. He left the university a few months after the class battle and has been reported in various parts of the country since. Although he was reported to have been seen in Evanston recently, authorities have been unable to locate him since Mount's body was found.

DALLAS, Texas, May 5.—A sham battle between students of John F. Threlton College, cost the life Thursday of Willie Peary, 19-year-old student, according to a mail dispatch from Stevensonville just arriving here.

The sham battle was witnessed by about 4,000 persons.

Dallas Babe, Dead at Birth, Given Life By Adrenalin Injection

DALLAS, Texas, May 5.—A still-born child was given life in a local hospital last night by the use of adrenalin hydrochloride injected into the heart muscles, it became known today.

All usual means of causing the heart to beat had been exhausted without success by the group of surgeons present, when adrenalin was given life to a stillborn, was suggested.

The drug was injected and shortly thereafter the tiny heart began to beat. The other means had been continued, according to Dr. J. B. Smoot, and whether the adrenalin can be entirely credited with the success of the medical feat is not known. However, no result had been noted until the drug was used, Dr. Smoot said.

Physicians and surgeons taking part in the operation were: Dr. Smoot, Dr. A. L. Shackelford, and Dr. Warren Massey.

2,000 BALLOT EARLY TODAY

Judges Forecast Large Vote In Election

INTEREST STRONG

Many Women Flock to Polls to Ballot

Indications at noon today were that the strongest vote ever polled in a city election in Port Arthur would be cast before the polls close this afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Up to noon today, a total of approximately 2,000 votes had been cast, with the indications that practically the entire voting strength of the city might be polled by the final hour tonight.

The interest manifested in the election was greater than it had ever before been in the history of the city, according to those in close touch with the situation.

City Hall Vote

At Ward 1, a total of 103 votes had been polled at 11:30 o'clock with a large number of citizens lined up waiting their turn in the balloting booths.

Lin's Garage

At Ward 3, a total of 749 ballots had been deposited in the boxes at 11:45, and there was a waiting list of some 200 men in line ready to vote as soon as it came their turn.

Houston Fire Station

At Ward 2, a total of 230 votes had been cast up to 11:30 o'clock. The News was informed, and the indications there were that even a larger number would be in by the noon hour.

A larger majority of women than ever turned out to the polls before in the history of Port Arthur showed their colors during the morning hours and responded to the call of the voting booths, election judges said.

Women Turn Out

At Ward 1, it was asserted that a larger number of votes had been cast by 11:30 o'clock than had ever been polled in a similar or any other election in Port Arthur.

On the streets all throughout the morning hours men and women edged one another about on their way to the polls, while on every hand election was the main topic of conversation.

Ward 1 the voters were coming in cars, afoot and in large bodies to cast their ballots for the officers of their choice, while up and down the streets the candidates were handing out their cards a goodly distance from the booths and making their final stands for ballots.

Sabine Awakened By Ship's Whistle and Bell; Sailor is Jailed

Because he "made the welkin ring" as he blew the whistle and rang the bell on the steamship Mexican Lady one night this week until all Sabine was aroused, and Dr. P. H. Chilton, quarantine officer, had dressed and hurried down to the waterfront to see if a ship was burning up, a sailor from the Mexican Lady is being held in the county jail pending an investigation into his sanity.

When the vessel looked at Beaumont several days ago, the sailor accused of raising the midnight ruckus at Sabine escaped from the Mexican Lady and was at large until Thursday, when Beaumont police took him in custody. Immigration officials in Port Arthur had him brought to Port Arthur for investigation, according to the police blotter.

BUILDINGS FALL; TIDE RUSHES IN

Populace Flees to Hills For Refuge

THICKLY SETTLED

Tremor Recorded at Washington Friday

SANTIAGO, Chile, May 5.—A strong earthquake shook the state of Atacama in northern Central Chile, toppling buildings from their foundations and causing great damage. A tidal wave which followed swept over the city of Carrizalillo, inundating a large area. The population fled in panic from the place and sought refuge in nearby hills. Homes were destroyed and many were caught in the sudden rush of the seawaters.

Coast Shaken

At Valparaiso, a coast village, the chief buildings of the town were shaken on their foundations and lay in partial ruins. Di-patches say there was great damage there, especially to irrigation ditches.

No estimates were made as to the loss of life.

The quake began at 5:40 p. m. last night, it was said.

Only Two Towns Heard From

Only these two towns were heard from in the area struck by the quake and giant wave. A careful checkup of the other sections is being made by authorities to determine the full extent of disorder. Serious damage and loss of life in other communities is feared.

The Andes mountains dip into the ocean in the state of Atacama which is a little more than 300 miles north of Valparaiso. The region is settled as thickly as the normal Chilean states.

News of the quake caused special interest here because of the recent Chilean earthquake disaster in which 1200 were killed and drowned.

Seismographs in the United States recorded an earth tremor "moderately severe," yesterday noon. It reached its greatest intensity, according to the Georgetown University recorder in Washington, between 11:16 a. m. and 12:05 p. m. This would correspond with the time of the Atacama quake.

PIONEER PILOT INTERRED TODAY

Many From Port Arthur to Attend Sheffers Funeral

The body of Capt. Aaron Sheffers, who died at Baytown, Texas, yesterday morning at 9:30 arrived in Beaumont this morning and will be interred in Magnolia cemetery this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World. A large number of Port Arthur friends of the aged captain, who was prominent in shipping circles in this section of the state, will attend the funeral this afternoon.

With Captain Sheffers' death one of the last old-time river captains on the Neches river and tributary waters has passed away. He was born in New Orleans in 1848, coming to Jefferson county in 1876. He married Miss Sarah Burch of Sabine Pass, who was a daughter of "Grandma Burch," one of the noble women who cooked for Dick Dooling and his command while stationed at the Pass during the Civil war. Dooling defeated a federal flotilla, sinking three of the ships.

Until recently Captain Sheffers was a resident of Port Arthur, being connected with the Gulf Refining company. Prior to his coming to Port Arthur Captain Sheffers for many years commanded boats that plied the Neches and Sabine rivers and was regarded as one of the most efficient captains or chief engineers, whatever position he might be holding at the time, in these waters.

Besides his widow he is survived by one son and two daughters, Earl Sheffers, and Mrs. Lillian O'Brien of Baytown, and Mrs. Charles Coleman of this city.

S. S. STEADFAST PULLED OFF MUD

Big Board Vessel Forced In to Shallows by Wind

With her engines running full speed astern and three tugs pulling away at her, the steamship Steadfast went off the mud in the ship canal late Friday night, after unsuccessful attempts to refloat the vessel had been carried on since 10 a. m. Friday, when the Steadfast grounded on the lake side of the canal, opposite the City League ball diamond.

Anchoring in the channel until dawn, the Steadfast continued to Beaumont today. Hundreds of people gathered on the canal bank Friday to watch the efforts being made to get the Steadfast into deep water, and as the big ship came off the mud, slip-ped into deep water and righted herself, a cheer went up from the spectators on the bank.

High winds and the swift current in the canal are reported to have sent the vessel into the soft mud with such force that she tilted heavily to port and struck fast, despite the efforts of the tugs to pull her off. The tug Heredia started at once trying to refloat the ship, and later the tug J. N. Gilbert was brought to the scene, but dismissed late in the afternoon, as the tug South American joined the Heredia and the Orion and these three tugs, with the Steadfast's engines going astern, refloated the ship.

A similar resolution passed the house but met defeat in the senate during the regular session.

The resolution alleges "it is a matter of common knowledge and general information that the Standard Oil company owns controlling interests in the Magnolia Petroleum company, the Humble Oil company, the Sinclair Oil company, the Gulf Production company, and a large number of oil subsidiaries, the Prairie Oil and Gas company, and a large number of oil and pipe line companies, controls and fixes the price of oil and gas and their products."

FACTIONS SPRING SENSATIONS AT ELEVENTH HOUR

Further Probe Into Troop Actions Today

TICKET FRAUD, CLAIM

16 Scouts Say Scout Master Instructed Them

After a period of comparative pre-election calm two factions seemed in definite cleavage.

The Port Arthur Scout Council this morning investigated and made a preliminary report on claims contained in an affidavit sworn to before Fred White, notary public, that F. A. Collins had been handed several thousand political circulars purporting to be a Klan ticket and bearing the slogan, "Clansmen do your duty."

The affidavit, in dodger form, was circulated by boys late last night.

Instructed By Rose

In his affidavit Collins said that he was instructed by Rose, candidate for city attorney, after he was called to Rose's office at 7:30 o'clock Friday night, to secure as many boys as he could and deliver one circular

AMONG THE ENTERTAINING and attractive affairs which have been given during the past week was the May fete at DeQueen school, when Miss Louise Strawbridge was crowned Queen of May in fitting manner on the DeQueen playground.

The festival was given under the direction of Miss Dorothy Collins, playground instructor, assisted by Miss Beatrice Halloran, Miss Naomi O'Neill, Miss Frances Horton, and Mrs. Horace Turner.

The coronation scene was one of the most charming and picturesque of the entire festival. The identity of the queen had been guarded with much secrecy, and her crowning by little Miss Louise Latimer, queen of the butterflies, occasioned much delight to both young and old.

The long parade of all the DeQueen school students, led by the public school band, following which the Queen of May and her attendants in a flower-covered chariot, then came the nymphs, fairies, butterflies, and costumed children.

After the queen's coronation, the whole school under the direction of Miss Thelma Barnes, music instructor, sang "The May Queen Song."

The May Day play, "The Coming of Spring," was presented by the following cast under the supervision of Miss Frances Horton:

Marching Band: Spring: Howard Jones, the Herald: Bones, Daisy Jones, Beatrice Stravering, Rae Jones, and Helen Six: Daisies: Jane Jones, Bernice Moore and Mamie Jones: Ferns: Jewel Dillinger, Doris Jones, June Hedden and Rosa Jones: Violets: Ida Mae Autrey, Emma Melver, Gertrude Winter and two confirmation classes.

St. George's Guild will be hostesses on this occasion. An attractive program is being arranged for the evening's entertainment and delicious refreshments will be served. The Young Peoples Service League will have charge of the decorations of the church.

THE HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY of the First Methodist Episcopal church will observe the annual "Mite Box" day on next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Blackstock, 1701 Procter street.

An interesting program is being arranged for the occasion in addition to the opening of the mite boxes. A large attendance of the members is expected on this occasion.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC ALTAR Society will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Knights of Columbus home.

Following the business session, refreshments will be served by Mrs. Kate Kent, Mrs. N. H. Breaux, and Mrs. Theo. Gentil. All members of the Altar Society are urged to be present.

A BUTTERFLY BRIDGE LUNCHEON, artistic and unique in every detail, was Mrs. A. N. Beckham's charmingly arranged entertainment of the Friday Bridge club at her attractive home, 2002 Procter street, on Friday afternoon.

Airy, gay-colored butterflies were everywhere in evidence, perched on the bridge tables and nestled in the clusters of beautiful blossoms about the rooms. The living room was fragrant and beautiful with a profusion of pink radiance roses, and in the dining room red radiance roses grazed vantage points. The sun parlor was lavishly with sunburst roses, clustered in baskets and vases, and showing in pretty relief against backgrounds of green foliage. The exquisite blossoms were gifts of Mrs. Beckham's charming friends.

Bridge tables were outfitted in covers of pastel shades, pink, coral, lavender and yellow, gleamed with rainbow hued butterflies. Large mounted butterflies appeared on the score pads, and on light curtains appeared on the walls in smaller design.

For success in the games Mrs. Sidney C. Collin received the club prize and Mrs. Dean Dorchester of Waxahachie was presented with the guest prize. The no-trump prize fell to Mrs. W. H. Richardson.

A lovely one o'clock luncheon was served preceding the games. The trays were centered with colorful glazed bowls filled with sweet peas, and pastel shades, and the lovely butterflies rested on the almond cups.

Three tables of players enjoyed the charming hospitality, the personnel including Mrs. A. F. Alston, Mrs. Willard Hoff, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. Dean Dorchester, Mrs. Herschel G. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Ogilvy of Galveston, Mrs. Frank Imhoff, Mrs. W. H. Elliott, Mrs. W. N. McKeon, Mrs. Sidney C. Collin, Mrs. J. E. Higgins, Mrs. S. O. Latimer, and Mrs. A. N. Beckham.

WOLFE DRIVER OF BOY'S DEATH

Police Say West Sixteenth
Tragedy Unavoidable

Police today absolved Alec Latiolas, 2221 Seventh street, of all blame for the death of Benjamin Franklin Gresham, 11 years, who died at Mary Grace hospital Friday about 6 p. m. an hour after being run down by an automobile driven by Latiolas on West Sixteenth street, police said.

A number of cars were passing along West Sixteenth street, in the 500 block, when young Gresham darted out in front of the car driven by Latiolas, was knocked down and two wheels of the machine passed over his body, according to a report made to police by John McGee, 843 West Sixteenth street, eye witness to the accident.

C. J. McChesney, 2302 Thirtieth street, owner of the automobile which ran down the boy, was riding in the car at the time, and reported the accident to the police. McChesney and Mike Hesson, 400 Fourteenth street, carried young Gresham to Mary Grace hospital in an automobile, where it was found the lad's skull had been fractured, and he had sustained a number of cuts and bruises about the head and body.

The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gresham, 825 West Sixteenth street, and besides the parents two sisters and a brother survive. The body will be shipped over the Southern Pacific at 2:48 p. m. today under the direction of J. E. Grammer, undertaker, for Reagan, Falls county, Texas, where burial will be made.

Angles of the probe instituted this morning by the Port Arthur Boy Scout council will come before another meeting to be held, it is understood, this afternoon or this evening. The resolution drawn up by the council declares that "the statement, which appeared in the Beaumont Enterprise the morning of May 5th and the circulars in evidence on the streets gives the impression that the Port Arthur Boy Scouts are taking part in local politics. This office wishes to emphatically deny this. We were not consulted. Had we been, permission would not have been granted."

A complete ticket affixed to form letters, signed "Citizens Committee" and "Campaign Committee" bears the following:

"Here's our ticket. Don't scratch them."

Then followed the slate:

For Mayor—W. R. Richardson.
For Commissioner of Public Health—George and Finances—Gilbert H. Stevens, Jr.

For Commissioner of Public Property and Improvements: Fred Minnie.

For City Attorney: J. E. Rose.
For Chief of Police: M. G. Johnson.

The ticket said: They all stand for a bigger, a better, a broader, a more beautiful Port Arthur.

The statement which appeared in the Beaumont Enterprise the morning of May 5th and the circulars in evidence on the streets give the impression that the Port Arthur Boy Scouts are taking part in local politics. This office wishes to emphatically deny this. We were not consulted. Had we been, permission would not have been granted for the delivering of these slips. The Boy Scouts of America is an organization of boys and for the boys.

The matter is being investigated by the officers of the Port Arthur Council Boy Scouts of America, and a report made at a later date.

STEFANIA KIKMAN, BLASE FIVE-YEAR-OLD

By ALEXANDER HERMAN
NEW YORK, May 5.—Although she is only five years old, Stefania Kikman is already so blasé that she can't get a thrill from life.

She is the product of the close confines of a crowded New York district. But her prototype may be found anywhere—even in the congested quarters of Port Arthur.

A dried-seaweed plant is her garden, and the narrow busy street her idea of the wide open spaces. Any patch of green grass, no matter how small, means "the country" to her.

But when it comes to world matters, Stefania knows as much as her elders.

She has never been to a circus. But she has seen part of one in the movies once. Since it was some kind of show, she said she wouldn't mind much if she went.

The elephants, the bears, the tigers and the clowns, didn't interest her much.

"They're trained," she said curtly. "Anybody can learn to do anything."

But the tappings "got" her. A woman accident came out to do her turn.

"Ain't she grand," sighed little Stefania.

"Look at her fine powder and rouge."

Then whispering a big secret: "Bet she use an eye-brow pencil, too."

An animal train came out to do her turn.

"The little girl perked up. 'He's married,' she confided. He had a white examination in his buttonhole, and that's what the big dog was at a wedding. Stefania once attended."

There came a bull. "Lumbers and confectionists held the rings. 'The five-year-old was bored."

But then came a tightrope walker bespangled in tinsel.

"Lookit, lookit," cried Stefania. "Some dress. But she must be rich, all right, Goe."

"Tuck stumps on the wire didn't interest her. She kept her eyes glued on the silver trimmings."

"That's the slickest act," she said. "Maybe I'll get doped up like that when I grow up."

The circus was over for her. There wasn't a thrill left in the tracks, the riders or even the man who puts his head in the lion's mouth.

We have sold our old church property, the deal to be consummated July 1st, but the parsonage will be occupied by the pastors until Dec. 1. We continue to build the new church, but can make more progress if every member will pay as much cash now as possible, and it all will become contributors each month to this fund. Bring all that is due the church budget for all purposes this next Sunday, if possible. We are making good progress, but we should step on the gas and exceed the speed limit. We invite the public to all services.

GIRL SWALLOWS POISON IN CAFE

Advices Other Girls to Profit
By Her Warning

CHICAGO, May 5.—Beatrice Bonicamp, a pretty white girl, swallowed poison in the Entertainers cafe early today.

"I was disgusted and despondent," the girl said. "When I saw Leonard Slakey, the man I have learned to love, dancing with another girl, I couldn't stand it any more and decided to die."

The Entertainers is in the neighborhood where pretty Ruth Miller of Baltimore was kidnapped by three negroes and held in bondage until released Saturday when she appealed to a white man visiting the place.

Like the Miller girl, Miss Bonicamp claims to come from a good family out in Iowa.

"I came here from Des Moines two years ago when I was only 17," she said. "Just tell my folks I died, don't let them know how. A year ago I met Slakey, a college boy, I loved him and—now this."

"I want other girls to know my story. Maybe they'll learn and profit by it. My story is like that of others, and I expect when some of those girls in the cafe heard what I had done they laughed."

Port Arthur Beats South Park Squad In 7 to 5 Contest

Hyde and Trow, Able Battery, Go Entire Route For Coach Leo Smith's Proteges; 13 Hits Meted Out During Clash.

PORT ARTHUR'S high school nine got together in the pinches yesterday and scalped South Park 7 to 5, in one of the best games of baseball they have staged here this year. The hurling airtight baseball for the locals, held the visitors tight, but they bunched them up with errors in the third inning yesterday, and ran in 5 runs before the Port Arthur battery, Hyde and Trow, could check them.

The game was staged on Lakeshore Diamond and drew a large gathering of enthusiastic fans to the sidelines. Hyde had been hurling an airtight ball during the first two go-rounds when the South Park boys got to him. Bases filled up, and then a Port Arthur player connected with a long one. Port Arthur hit the catch and the "blow-up" led. When it had finished, the long appreciation had elapsed away, while the home boys were standing in the zero column.

Port Arthur connected in the sixth three runs, and they brought their average up in the next frame in four more Port Arthurians scored the counting rubber and ended the game for the day, with the home team leading 7 to 5, favor Port Arthur.

The score by innings follows: Port Arthur 005 000 000—7 4 3 10. South Park 000 003 005—5 3 3 11. As indicated in the score by innings, Hyde held his ball tight and kept the visiting squad after their first strike in the third, while a crippled by a sore arm, gave able support behind the plate.

Do You Know?

What caused the break in relations between Johnny Wilson, the middleweight champion and his manager, Marty Killian? Was Killian or Wilson to blame for Wilson's difficulties with the New York boxing commission?

Killian said he passed over his contract with Wilson because he was disgusted with the way boxing was being conducted in New York. It is said, however, that Frank Marlow, a wealthy personal friend of Wilson's, gave Killian $50,000 for his five-year contract.

Wilson's refusal to defend his title caused his suspension by the boxing commission and it is not known why he refused. It might have been that Killian demanded too much money, or that he advised Wilson against the matches offered him.

However, if the policy of his manager did not meet his approval, Wilson could have been relieved of the contract by appealing to the commission.

"Who is the world's golf champion?" J. D. D. There is no official world's title. When Gene Sarazen won the American open and the P. G. A. championship, several other American sectional titles and then defeated Walter Hagen, the American holder of the British open title, he was unofficially declared the world's champion. Since that time Sarazen's game has slumped badly, while Hagen has been playing wonderfully and most of the golf critics expect Hagen to make a grand cleanup this season.

"What is the difference in the managerial methods of John McGraw and Miller Huggins?" BASEBALL LOVER. That is too general a question to be answered without a lengthy discussion. However it is generally believed that the biggest difference is the variance of their ideas of enforcing discipline. That difference is shown best perhaps in the way they conduct their spring training. McGraw runs his training camp like a military unit. He prescribes all the drills and takes charge of them personally. He tells them what to do and shows them how to do it. Personal contact and strict supervision are carried out to the letter. Huggins, on the contrary, allows his athletes to train as they please on the theory that they are old enough to know what suits them best. This theory carried out in training may lead his athletes to believe that the same holds good on and off the ball field during the season. Failure to assert himself in one thing, makes it difficult for him to have his orders obeyed in others.

BAKULE CHORUS SINGS TO PRESIDENT HARDING

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Thirty-five children from the Bakule chorus of Prague, visiting this country in appreciation of American interest in Czechoslovakia, gave a concert for President and Mrs. Harding in the White House.

After they had sung the Star-Spangled Banner and Dixie Mrs. Harding asked for some of their own music and was delighted by a number of folk songs and the Czech national anthem.

The children were accompanied by John Barton Payne, chairman of the Red Cross. After leaving the White House they stopped at the home of ex-President Wilson, but found him unable to see them.

MORRIS LOSES OPENING GAME WITH HOUSTON

Buffaloes Rally in 7th and Win 4-2

HOUSTON, Texas, May 5.—Joe Morris, the finger-shooter Stump Edgington chose to represent the Beaumont Exporters here in the opening game, met defeat yesterday when the Buffaloes tore loose on a rampage and capped the game 4 to 2. It was close and exciting all the way.

Morris conducted himself well in the pinches, and for six stanzas of the clash looked somewhat formidable as his colleagues piled up a 2-run lead in the second and seventh frames. Houston went the scoreless route for the six long innings, but tore loose with a couple in both the seventh and eighth innings that won for them and the Exporters gave way to the opener.

YOU AND I

HUNTING

The British spend 200 million dollars a year on fox hunting, according to a book published in London.

The author, G. W. Clark, comments that this is more than the interest Britain has to pay on her debt to America.

The English are doing a lot of hunting about that debt, but the cost of hunting foxes is a painful fact of extraction. Human nature. We Americans foam at the mouth when the cost of necessities advances even a trifle. When it comes to luxuries and amusement, we fling our money away gladly. The high cost of living is an outrage, but the cost of high living is usually satisfactory.

PREDICTED

After they had locked the doors at the peace conference, an English delegate got up and suggested that Germany should pay about 30 billion dollars indemnity.

A Frenchman erupted. His price was 150 billion dollars. The American delegates listened quietly, then said in effect: "It isn't what you want, but what you can get. Germany will pay five billions—possibly six—not more than seven."

It is interesting that the latest German offer offers to pay about six billion dollars reparations.

MARATHON

The recent American Marathon race showed that long distance running does not affect the heart as much as the legs. So say the doctors who X-rayed the runners' hearts and kept close watch on them.

"Endurance contests may not at the time materially injure a professional runner or an amateur who has 'worked up to it' gradually by proper training. But for the untrained it is dangerous and harmful. And trained or untrained marathon runners and endurance dancers will pay later in life. You can't cheat nature."

FORD

These suddenly rising prices of materials are unnecessary, says Henry Ford. "Manufacturers are beginning to bid against one another and with every bid prices go up a notch. In this way they are playing the raw material interests' game, and unless a wiser view is taken the end of it all is going to be another stoppage of business."

Most of us need a guardian when times are prosperous.

LOANS

Federal Reserve Bank officials "see danger" in the rapidly increasing credit demand—by which they mean the steady advance in the total amount of money borrowed by business organizations.

When prices are rising and the buying power of the dollar accordingly shrinking, business has to have a larger volume of money to do even the former amount of business. Professor Fisher is right. We need a dollar stabilized by something like an elastic gold backing, to keep its buying power at about the same level. Work out a way and you'll have the boldest thing will kill or seriously wound old man Hard Times.

POSTMEN

No American fully realizes the enormous activities of the nation of which he is a member. It is beyond human imagination. We get a fair inkling of the tremendous extent of our machinery of civilization occasionally—us, for instance, in the announcement that it now requires 235,000 postmen to move our mails.

Tom Sims Says

Perhaps wild flowers are wild because everybody's after them.

Woman's place is in the home, not the garden.

Some men living a dog's life have no license to do it.

Blowing your own horn a little is necessary. Do not, however, blow it to beat the band.

A garden plot is a plot to prove a seed catalogue a liar.

Chuckles and the world chuckles with you; weep and somebody will steal your handkerchief.

A clock watcher is usually a man who is marking time.

Porch swings, auto seats and park benches indicate the June bride crop will be large.

A steady heel in any beau sister can make feel shaky.

Screeners are fine mesh wire which flies think are put up to keep them from getting out.

About the only easy way to hold a job these days is to marry some of the boss' kind.

A puncture in a little hole found in auto tire at long distance from place of tire.

SUGAR

American women are launching a sugar boycott. Herbert Hoover, Mayor John F. Hylan of New York and Governor Jonathan Davis of Kansas are among the boycott promoters. Isn't the boycott a weapon of foreign origin? Isn't it alien? Captain Boycott was an Irish landlord. He ruled and robbed his tenants until they were reduced to beggary. Then the land renters banded together and refused to rent the land of the rack-renting landlord.

The tenants won: Captain Boycott surrendered; he made his peace with the producers of wealth but he died thoroughly hated and thoroughly despised. Now three prominent Americans are advising the housewives to make life miserable for the sugar kings of America by playing a boycott on their product with the hope of forcing an unconditional surrender.

Boycotting as a principle is not to be commended; as a weapon its force is something terrific. But why employ it in America, where the people are said to be the masters and there is one law for all?

ANOTHER FLY

According to a circular issued by the National Association of Credit Men wholesale prices have been advancing; cost of living is showing a monthly gain; employment and wages have shown a considerable increase and car loadings are of record figures. Also the bulletin contains a warning that good business may be endangered by the placing of too large orders. There is a fly in the ointment.

KNUTE NELSON

Knute Nelson was given a military funeral. He had won the right in the long ago. He was 80 when he died. He was 17 when he came from Norway to the United States. He fought for five years in the civil war for the flag of the union and the emancipating of the chattel slave.

He became the foremost citizen of the northwest. He held many of the highest offices in the state of Minnesota before its people sent him to the American senate and they kept him in the senate 28 years.

No native American had ever been more loyal to the flag and the principles of democracy than Knute Nelson, born under the flag of a monarch, and during the long years of his life under the flag of a republic ever champion of sane government and justice to all in keeping with the provisions of the constitution and the bill of rights.

In his youth he offered his life for the cause and the flag that he loved. His people gave him a military burial and the eternal fitness of things was recognized when it was so ordered by those who paid the last tribute to a private soldier who had become a great American senator-statesman.

Domestic gasoline consumption in February was forty-two per cent greater than in February, 1922. Foreign and domestic consumption for the month was fifty-two per cent greater than a year ago. And the ox cart held the roadway thirty years ago. This isn't the tallow-dip age, but there are tallow dippers to be found here and there. They are the King Tuts of the present.

LET THERE BE LIGHT

President Harding told the New York publishers that government had been instrumental in wiping out the various causes of contention and conflict in the western world, "and has today but one difficult problem left, and happily that, with Mexico, is nearing its solution."

Petroleum made the Mexican situation and the politicians pushed it along.

William Howard Taft denied recognition to Mexico.

Woodrow Wilson denied recognition to Mexico.

Warren G. Harding all along has denied recognition to Mexico.

Why? Wasn't it because the people of Mexico refused to permit nationals from other countries to draft a new constitution for Mexico and then to draft and to interpret the laws of Mexico?

Now, Charles B. Warren and John Barton Payne have been named as the American members of a joint commission to bring about an early settlement of all difficulties between the two nations. Let there be light but do not permit the petroleum lamp to furnish all the light.

LAW OF THE LAND

No intoxicating liquor can be brought within three miles of American shores. This is the law of the land. This is the decree of the courts of last resort. This is a warning to a man or men who transport liquor any distance whether a flask in the hip pocket or a bottle or a case. Those who dance must pay the fiddlers. Those who violate the Volstead act are headed in the direction of the penitentiary.

WOOL NOT ON FREE LIST

There is prosperity in Tom Green county. A Boston buyer paid 53 cents a pound for 450,000 pounds of long twelve-month wool of the 1923 spring production. This is the highest price paid this season in Texas. Just the other day another Boston buyer paid 52 cents for 40,000 pounds of wool. Texas growers say that the republican tariff on wool saved them from financial disaster. Now what are the democratic politicians going to say and what are they going to do about it?

LID NAILED DOWN

American ships may carry and sell liquors on the high seas and in foreign ports but American ships are prohibited from carrying or selling intoxicating liquors within three miles of American shores. This nails down the lid as it has never been nailed down before. Prohibition prohibits.

President Obregon has decreed that Americans and other foreigners who cross to Mexico to gamble or engage in any other sort of vice hereafter will be deported and that, too, without delay. President Obregon is a man of his word. He was a fighting soldier before he became a peace-loving and high-minded statesman.

RED LIQUOR

More than twenty-five hundred New York druggists are authorized to fill liquor prescriptions. Keeping within the law, a druggist can clear $8,000 a year on his liquor business alone. He is entitled to draw 100 gallons of distilled spirit every three months. Usually he takes eighty gallons of whiskey and twenty gallons of alcohol. That makes twenty-five hundred and sixty pints of whiskey a year for which he pays $1.50 a pint and sells for $2, or $3.50, for a net whisky profit of about $5,000 a year. An additional $3,000 is cleared on alcohol withdrawn by permit. A druggist is also permitted to withdraw 400 gallons of wine a year. Happy is the druggist who has a permit. There are eighteen states which do not avail themselves of the federal permit privilege.

WHAT'S ALL THE EXCITEMENT ABOUT?

LESLIE PRESQUITT TO THE GAY LITTLE MARQUESE, IN CARE OF THE SECRET DRAWER

I wonder, say little Marquise, if it is really true that "this dear place of silence," which has kept all your secrets, will keep mine. For you know I am the next woman who has found her way into it.

I am going to "disgorge my overcharged heart" to you, little Marquise. Because you have been so long dust—only dust and memories—I know you will keep my secrets if, at the end of my life, I do as you did and burn these letters one by one, leaving the secret drawer to the next woman who finds it. (She will have to find it as I will never give up your secret.)

I wonder if you were always happy, if your "kingly love" never spoke to you in anger.

Perhaps he did not for you never married him, you know. A note of annoyance never came into Jack's voice before we were married. Now, however, with the best intentions in the world, I have made Jack so angry with me that he has hardly spoken to me for three days.

I still think that he is quite as much to blame as I because he would have nothing to do with the settling of our home; because he would not let me consult him as to prices.

He seemed to think that I should know everything about house keeping, house furnishing, horse buying, and how to spend money, even nominally, as he does about advertising.

Oh, say little Marquise, did you ever have to bring such a sordid thing as money into your love? If you did, I know that many times Cupid perched himself upon this secret drawer and let the tears drop from his streaming eyes and run down his little naked body.

I expect often you felt like passing him over your dainty wrap of love handkerchief if it wasn't so wet with your own tears.

Oh, little Marquise, I wonder if you found out the truth of what some woman who came after you has said that "one must shed gallons of tears before one comes to know that nothing or no one in this world is worth one."

I have pretty nearly shed my gallows. I think, but I haven't come yet to thinking that Jack isn't worth a tear. When I think how cross he has been to me, my eyes overflow again. They have been all swollen and red for a long time and Jack never noticed it!

It all began when I showed him the lease of the apartment. Jack came home three nights ago evidently feeling splendid. He had made a wonderful contract that day and the first thing he said to me was that he was sure of a raise in his salary.

NAHANT, Mass., May 3.—Michael de Carlo, Lynn butcher, who purchased a home in the exclusive section of Nahant last summer, where he entertained children from the slums to such an extent that he was lured into court, was found guilty of selling liquor in his shop, sentenced to a month in the house of correction and fined $100. He appealed the decision.

Sure you know Jim E. Connors. He will do what he says he will do. Vote for him on May the 5th.

Indigestion

"I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. H. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Wade, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter... consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. The druggist recommended and I decided to try it, for, as I say, I had tried for years without any improvement in my health. I soon found the Black-Draught was acting on my liver and easing the terrible pain.

"In two or three weeks, I found I could go back to eating. I only weighed 123. Now I weigh 147—eat anything I want to, and by taking Black-Draught I do not suffer."

Have you tried Theford's Black-Draught? If not, do so today. Sold everywhere. EX 11

TO THE VOTERS OF PORT ARTHUR:

All citizens who feel an actual interest in the growth and welfare of the city will put the interest of the community as a whole above personal interest in a particular candidate for public office, and will exercise that degree of caution in preparing their ballot which their interests in safe and progressive government directs. In soliciting your vote for the office of City Commissioner, I do so with a full appreciation of the very great importance to the citizens of the city that the Commission should consist of persons who are capable of enacting municipal legislation which will vouchsafe the greatest protection and uniform safety and happiness of all of our people and will best advance and safeguard the interests of the municipality. If I am elected I shall shape my course by the people's interests and will not be influenced in my official conduct by any one element, organization, concern or combination, but will be moved alone by a spirit of uniform fairness to the people of Port Arthur. I am sensible of the great responsibilities imposed upon a City Commissioner and especially pertinent to the office of Commissioner of Public Record and Finance, (the assignment for which I am aspiring) and in the event of my election I shall endeavor to maintain that order of efficiency in the public service as will redound to my own credit and will render the best service to the people of my home city. In seeking this employment from the public I can offer no better reference as to my character and fitness for the office than, my present employers, The Texas Company, in whose service and employ I have been for the past several years, and I shall be pleased for interested inquiries to be made of them along this line. I will appreciate your vote and will devote my time and best thought and energy to your service.

THE INTERLOPER

BY BERTON BRALEY

You've got it all planned, what you do with your life. How singly, you'll plunge in the heat of the strife. Without being "hampered or bound by a wife."

And wrest your success from the midst of the throng. And then—then a girl comes along! A girl comes along! And your heart sings a song.

Without her you feel that the world would go wrong: You'll know how it is when a girl comes along!

You've wanted to travel, to love and to roam. By mountain and valley and over the foam. Without any family waiting at home. And marriage, you think, is a 'chain and a thought.'

And then—then a girl comes along! A girl comes along! Oh her magic is strong. And you'll settle down with the home-keeping throng.

For that's how it is when a girl comes along! You're sore and discouraged, you're down on your luck. You've lost all your pep and your vim and your pluck.

The crowd seems to trample you deep in the muck. You cannot stand up at the clang of the gong. And then—then a girl comes along! A girl comes along! Just a girl from the throng.

And courage comes back to you, vibrant and strong. You rise up again, a man among men. For that's how it is when a girl comes along!

NEW YORK, May 3.—Dumourda Ruy is a Cuban, classified as a "Slim Jim." Lai Gin is a Chinese fat, sleek and looking well fed.

Both stowed away on the steamship Glendola in Cuba. Several days out they were found and put to work. Ruy worked hard and got slimmer and slimmer. Gin just plugged along.

When the Glendola put into port Ruy and Gin were locked in a cub in which had a little porthole. Ruy looked at the opening. "I got you

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Nick started to wig-wag a message.

Up to the top of Gun Powder Hill in Bing-Bang Land, climbed Nick and Nancy. Gun Powder Hill was half way between the tin army and the wooden army, and the Twins were going to send messages to both. General Gold Braid of the wooden army saw them and put up his apron glasses to see better. Nick started to wig-wag a message. This was the message: "PLEASE STOP FIGHTING AND MAKE PEACE!" General Gold Braid turned to Colonel Stiff Leg. "What do you say, sir?" he asked. "Shall we stop?" "Never!" declared Colonel Stiff Leg firmly. "And what do you say, sir?" the general next asked Major Starch Front. "Never!" cried the major just as firmly as Colonel Stiff Leg had. And Captain Bow Legs and Lieutenant Shiny Boot and Private Knapsack all cried, "Never," as firmly as professors. "Then 'never' it is," said General Hobbledeoh, and nodded to Private Knapsack to signal back the answer. When the Twins told the "Tinker Man" what the soldiers said he sighed. "Then the war in Bing-Bang Land will have to go on," he said. "I don't know what the Fairy Queen will say, or Santa Claus either." (To Be Continued) (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

A Puzzle A Day

The drawing shows a desk calendar. Each day a leaf is swung over from the bottom section. The day is then on the upper section. A, which is the lower section, is blank, for memoranda. On the calendar shown above, the number 15 is showing through the lower leaf, very faintly from the underside. Can you tell from what date is showing on the upper page, A?

Yesterday's answer: A lamp was sold for fifty-six dollars. The number of dollars it cost is the same as the number of percent profit made on it. The cost of the lamp was forty dollars. Forty per cent of forty is sixteen, and forty plus sixteen gives the sale price of the lamp—fifty-six dollars.

France and Belgium

Agree On Answer

To German Empire

PARIS, May 5.—France and Belgium reached final agreement late today on an answer to the German reparations proposal.

Premier Poincare received the Belgian acceptance of his text and announced that copies of the joint text would be sent at once to all the allies.

The note, however, will not be handed to the German charge d'affaires in Paris and Brussels until Sunday morning.

It is understood Great Britain, likewise, is planning a separate note which is said to be in conflict with the position of France.

There must be no juggling of the issues if there are to be negotiations, the French note says. Germany must accept fully the terms laid down.

Dallas Babe, Dead at Birth, Given Life By Adrenalin Injection

DALLAS, Texas, May 5.—A still-born child was given life in a local hospital last night by the use of adrenalin hydrochloride injected into the heart muscles, it became known today.

All usual means of causing the heart to beat had been exhausted without success by the group of surgeons present, when adrenalin used successfully in Chicago recently in giving life to a still-born, was suggested.

The drug was injected and shortly thereafter the tiny heart began to beat. The other means had been continued, according to Dr. J. B. Smoot, whether the adrenalin can be credited with the success of the medical feat is not known. However, no result had been noted until the drug was used, Dr. Smoot said.

Physicians and surgeons taking part in the operation were: Dr. Smoot, Dr. L. Shackelford, and Dr. Warren.

ALTER RECORDS TO SAVE N.W.U.

Sensational Charge in Death of Student

ON MAYOR'S ORDERS

University President Ordered, Coroner Says

CHICAGO, May 5.—Police records dealing with class warfare at Northwestern University in 1921, when Leighton Mount, freshman, disappeared, were altered to "save the name" of the institution, Oscar Wolf, coroner, announced today.

The coroner, accompanied by other officials, visited Police Chief Leggett of Evanston and learned that he altered the records of hazing on orders from Mayor Harry Pearson.

The mayor had been requested by President Walter Dill Scott of the University to make the changes, Leggett said.

Killed, Says Coroner

Simultaneously Wolf announced evidence was uncovered which proved beyond doubt Mount was killed during class fighting.

Wolf said the suicide theory of Mount's death was fantastic as 500 pounds of rocks, weighted down the body found under a pier reaching into Lake Michigan, nineteen months after the class battle.

The records, admitted changed by Police Chief Leggett, dealt with the hazing of Arthur Persinger by Mount's class mates. Persinger was tied head downward to the pier and was discovered nearly unconscious by a fishing tug. A few hours later Mount disappeared.

Hazing Seen by Officers

Leggett admitted that after the finding of Persinger he had ordered a police captain stationed all night at the pier under which Mount's body was later found, to prevent students being thrown into the lake unless they were unbound. Three had been hurled into the lake, tied hand and foot, before the police captain was stationed at the pier.

The officer reported that at least 20 students were dropped off the pier while he was at the post of duty, his only precaution being to see that the victims were not tied.

J. Allen Mills, president of the freshman class in 1921, is the only student mentioned in connection with the fighting still unaccounted for. He left the university a few months after the class battle and has been reported in various parts of the country since. Although he was reported to have been seen in Evanston recently, authorities have been unable to locate him since Mount's body was found.

POISONED?

Vital Organs of Aged Man To Be Analyzed

DELAWARE, Ohio, May 5.—Acting on information which they said indicated he had been poisoned, authorities today sent the vital organs of Brainerd Willis, wealthy farmer and uncle of Senator Frank B. Willis, to Columbus, to be analyzed.

Willis, who was 90 years old, died April 10. His body was exhumed, according to R. T. Benton, county prosecutor, on complaint of Mrs. Cora Mae Willis, his daughter, who charged he had been poisoned by a member of his family who wanted the estate.

College Sham Battle Fatal to Dallas Student

DALLAS, Texas, May 5.—A sham battle between students of John Tarleton College, cost the life Thursday of Willie Pearcey, 19-year-old student, according to a mail dispatch from Stephenville just arriving here.

The paper wad of a blank cartridge, fired accidentally by Paul Hickey, an other student, caused the fatal wound. Pearcey and Hickey, according to the report, each holding a rifle in his hand, collided as they ran around an automobile. Hickey's weapon was discharged and the paper wad entered Pearcey's abdomen.

The sham battle was witnessed by about 4,000 persons.

Head Crushed When Two Cars Collide

Three In Cutdown Car Escape With Bruises When It Turns Over; Driver of The Other Car Escapes Unhurt.

Hurled 20 Feet

Mitchell-Wilson, 20, of 835 Lake Shore Drive, fatally injured in an auto crash at Charleston avenue and Seventh street Saturday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, died 30 minutes later in Mary Gates hospital, the third victim of automobile accidents in and near Port Arthur during the past three days.

Hurled 20 Feet

Hurled 20 feet when the cut-down Ford car he and three companions were riding in, and a Ford roadster collided, Wilson landed head foremost on a concrete curbing, sustaining a fracture at the base of the skull. The other occupants of the cut-down car escaped with minor cuts and bruises, although all were thrown out as the machine turned over a couple of times before landing on its side in the ditch.

Gossett Escapes

W. C. Gossett, 2201 Thomas boulevard, driving the roadster, escaped unhurt, his car being knocked out of the street and against a post, he reported at police station. The cut-down car with the four boys in it was traveling along Charleston avenue towards Procter street at a high rate of speed, and he was coming down Seventh street, towards town, he told police.

All of the occupants of the cut-down car were young men, around 20 years of age, and with Wilson, came to Port Arthur about three months ago from Uvalde, Texas, taking rooms at 835 Lake Shore Drive. They gave their names as Lester Hunter, Bernard Dornally and Joe Evans. Wilson, they said, has been employed at the Gulf Refining company until Saturday, when he quit.

Relative at Uvalde

Efforts were being made late Saturday to get in touch with Wilson's relatives in Uvalde, where his mother and a brother, William Wilson, traveling salesman, reside. Pending the completion of funeral arrangements, the body is at Grammer's Undertaking establishment. Wilson's body will be shipped back to Uvalde, friends said.

Jack Pope, father of John and husband of Mrs. Lydia Pope, one of those killed, admitted his guilt while being cross-examined at the preliminary hearing. He is expected to plead guilty when brought to trial.

Sentence on the younger Pope and Harvey was expected to be delayed until end of the trial of the elder Pope.

PROBE 'TRUST'

Winfree Measure Passed by Texas House

AUSTIN, May 5.—The Winfree resolution, demanding legislative investigation of the alleged Standard Oil control of Texas oil refineries and price-fixing on gasoline in violation of anti-trust law, was passed in the house by a vote of 51 to 44 Saturday afternoon.

A similar resolution passed the house but met defeat in the senate during the regular session.

The resolution alleges "it is a matter of common knowledge and general information that the Standard Oil company owns controlling interests in the Magnolia Petroleum company, the Humble Oil company, the Sinclair Oil company, the Gulf Production company, and a large number of oil subsidiaries, the Prairie Oil and Gas company, and a large number of oil and gas pipe line companies, controls and fixes the price of oil and gas and their products."

S. S. STEADFAST PULLED OFF MOD

Big Board Vessel Forced Into Shallows by Wind

With her engines running full speed astern and three tugs pulling away at her, the steamship Steadfast got off the mud in the ship canal late Friday night, after unsuccessful attempts to refloat the vessel had been carried on since 10 a. m. Friday, when the Steadfast grounded on the lake side of the canal, opposite the City League hall diamond.

Anchoring in the channel with dawn, the Steadfast continued to Beaumont today. Hundreds of people gathered on the canal bank Friday to watch the efforts being made to get the Steadfast out into deep water, and as the big ship came off the mud, slipped into deep water and righted herself, a cheer went up from the spectators on the bank.

High winds and the swift current in the canal are reported to have sent the vessel into the soft mud with such force that she listed heavily to port and stuck fast, despite the efforts of the tugs to pull her off. The tug Bertha started at once trying to refloat the ship, and later the tug J. N. Gilbert was brought to the scene, but dismissed late in the afternoon, as the Ryan tug Orion came up. About dark, the tug South American joined the Bertha and the Orion and these three tugs, with the Steadfast's engines going astern, refloated the ship.

Crude Oil Prices

Cut in Texas Fields

DALLAS, Texas, May 5.—A reduction of 10 cents per barrel in crude oil of 21 gravity and higher at wells in the Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas fields, and a reduction of 5 cents per barrel for crude oil in those fields, are today by the Magnolia Petroleum company, effective immediately. Reductions of 10 cents per barrel in Mexico, Thrall, Texas fields and 50 cents in the Corsicana field were also announced.

Sabine Awakened By Ship's Whistle and Bell; Sailor is jailed

Because he "made the wrong ring" as he blew the whistle and rang the bell on the steamship Mexican Lady one night this week until all Sabine was aroused, and Dr. P. H. Chilton, quarantine officer, had dressed and hurried down to the waterfront to see if a ship was burning up, a sailor from the Mexican Lady is being held in the county jail pending an investigation into his sanity.

When the vessel docked at Beaumont several days ago, the sailor accused of raising the midnight ruckus at Sabine escaped from the Mexican Lady and was at large until Thursday, when Beaumont police took him in custody. Immigration officials in Port Arthur had him brought to Port Arthur for investigation, according to the police blotter.

BUILDINGS FALL; TIDE RUSHES IN

Populace Flees to Hills For Refuge

THICKLY SETTLED

Tremor Recorded at Washington Friday

SANTIAGO, Chile, May 5.—A strong earthquake shook the state of Atacama in northern Central Chile, toppling buildings from their foundations and causing great damage. A tidal wave which followed swept over the city of Carrizavillo, inundating a large area. The population fled in panic from the place and sought refuge in nearby hills. Homes were destroyed and many were caught in the sudden rush of the seawaters.

Coast Shaken

At Valparaiso, a coast village, the chief buildings of the town were shaken on their foundations and lay in partial ruins. Dispatches say there was great damage there, especially to irrigation ditches.

No estimates were made as to the loss of life.

The quake began at 5:40 p. m. last night, it was said.

Only Two Towns Heard From

Only the two towns were heard from in the area stricken by the quake and giant wave. A careful checkup of the other sections is being made by authorities to determine the full extent of disorder. Serious damage and loss of life in other communities is feared.

The Andes mountains dip into the ocean in the state of Atacama which is a little more than 300 miles north of Valparaiso. The region is settled as thickly as the normal Chilean states.

News of the quake caused special interest here because of the recent Chilean earthquake disaster in which 1200 were killed and drowned.

Seismographs in the United States, recorded an earth tremor "moderately severe," yesterday noon. It reached its greatest intensity, according to the Georgetown University recorder in Washington, between 11:46 a. m. and 12:06 p. m. This would correspond with the time of the Atacama quake.

PIONEER PILOT INTERRED TODAY

Many From Port Arthur to Attend Sheffer's Funeral

The body of Capt. Aaron Sheffer, who died at Baytown, Texas, yesterday morning at 9:30 arrived in Beaufort, of which amount 1,092,375 barrels were shipped coastwise, and 414,732 barrels foreign. Crude oil shipments totalled 411,007 barrels, 380,142 barrels going coastwise and 30,855 barrels foreign, according to the report.

With Captain Sheffer's death one of the last old-time river captains on the Neches river and tributary waters has passed away. He was born in New Orleans in 1848, coming to Jefferson county in 1876. He married Miss Sarah Burch of Sabine Pass, who was a daughter of "Grandma Burch," one of the noble women who cooked for Dick Dawling and his command while stationed at the Pass during the Civil war. Dawling defeated a federal flotilla, sinking three of the ships.

Until recently Captain Sheffer was a resident of Port Arthur, being connected with the Gulf Refining company. Prior to his coming to Port Arthur Captain Sheffer for many years commanded boats that plied the Neches and Sabine rivers and was regarded as one of the most efficient captains or chief engineers, whatever position he might be holding at the time, in these waters.

Besides his widow, he is survived by one son and two daughters, Earl Sheffer, and Mrs. Lillian O'Brien of Baytown, and Mrs. Charles Coleman of this city.

ASKS THAT GONZALLES AND NITZER MURDER CASES BE TRANSFERRED

STEFANIA KIKMAN, BLASE FIVE-YEAR-OLD

By ALEXANDER HERMAN
NEW YORK, May 5.—Although she is only five years old, Stefania Kikman is already so blasé that she can't get a thrill from life.

She is the product of the close confines of a crowded New York district. Her father, a Russian, is a small, dark man with a thick mustache. He is a street vendor, and the girl has seen him at his work from the time she was born.

A divilish grin came to her face as she looked at the camera. She had been to a circus, and she was still talking about it. She had seen a tightrope walker, and she had seen a lion tamer. She had seen a man who could walk on a wire, and she had seen a man who could walk on a tightrope.

She had seen a man who could walk on a wire, and she had seen a man who could walk on a tightrope. She had seen a man who could walk on a wire, and she had seen a man who could walk on a tightrope.

GIRL SWALLOWS POISON IN CAFE
Advises Other Girls to Profit By Her Warning
CHICAGO, May 5.—Beatrice Boncamp, a pretty white girl, swallowed poison in the Enterprisers cafe early today.
"I was disgusted and despondent," the girl said. "When I saw Leonard Stankey, the man I have learned to love, dancing with another girl, I couldn't stand it any more and decided to die."
The Enterprisers is in the neighborhood where pretty Ruth Miller of Baltimore was kidnapped by three negroes and held in bondage until released Saturday when she appealed to a white man visiting the place.
Like the Miller girl, Miss Boncamp claims to come from a good family out in Iowa.
"I came here from Des Moines two years ago when I was only 17," she said. "Just tell my folks I died, don't let them know how. A year ago I met Stankey, a college boy, I loved him and—now this."
"I want other girls to know my story. Maybe they'll learn and profit by it. My story is like that of others, and I expect when some of those girls in the cafe heard what I had done they laughed."

Angles of the mole instituted this morning by the Port Arthur Boy Scout council will come before the public in the form of a political sensation, this afternoon at 11 o'clock.

The resolution drawn up by the council declares that "the statement which appeared in the Beaumont Enterprise the morning of May 5th and the circulation in evidence on the streets gives the impression that the Port Arthur Boy Scouts are taking part in local politics. This is a serious matter and we wish to emphatically deny this. We were not consulted. Had we been consulted, we would not have agreed."

A complete ticket affair for the local election, signed "Citizens' Committee," and "Citizens' Committee," bears the following:

"Here's our ticket. Don't scratch these."

Then followed the list:
For Mayor—W. R. Richardson.
For Commissioner of Public Records and Finance—Gilbert H. Stevenson.
For Commissioner of Public Property and Improvements—Fred Minch.

For City Attorney—J. E. Rose.
For Chief of Police—M. G. Johnson.
The ticket said: They all stand for a bigger, a better, a broader, a more beautiful Port Arthur.

A signed statement by officials of the Boy Scouts follows:
Article IX, Section 1, Clause 2, National Constitution, Boy Scouts of America, specifically provides that Scouts shall not wear the uniform when engaged in distinctive political endeavor.

Statement which appeared in the Beaumont Enterprise the morning of May 5 and the circulation in evidence on the streets gives the impression that the Port Arthur Boy Scouts are taking part in local politics. This is a serious matter and we wish to emphatically deny this. We were not consulted. Had we been consulted, we would not have agreed to the delivery of these slips. The Boy Scouts of America is an organization of boys and for the boys.

The matter is being investigated by the officers of the Port Arthur Council. Boy Scouts of America, and a report made at a later date.

PORT ARTHUR COUNCIL.
DAVID W. EDDY,
Scout Executive.

Vice President, Port Arthur Council.

MARKETS

WALL STREET JOURNAL
NEW YORK, May 5.—Price movement today gave evidence of a decided falling off in bullish aggressiveness. Selling pressure was conspicuous for the absence and the action of the market suggested an attempt to liquidate the speculative position of the day. The decline had been impressive, but the volume of the decline was not so great as the day before.
